We require that the insured meet all of the following underwriting criteria to be eligible for the program:

Item 1: Required Association Characteristics

- The entity is a non-profit community association.
- The association has been Crime claim-free for the last 5 years.
- The association does not have more than 25 employees on payroll.

Item 2: Procedures

Item 3: Oversight/Reconciliation

- Are the associations' bank accounts and credit card statements are reconciled monthly by someone not authorized to deposit, withdraw, initiate electronic funds transfer, or use an association credit card?
- If Association utilizes Traditional Banking, countersignatures are required on all checks over $500
- If Association utilizes Electronic Banking, they must meet the following:
 - The board approves all checks/expenditures and also verifies the completion/receipt of purchased services or goods.
 - The employee creating the check or payment request does not also sign or approve.
 - The board receives a monthly statement directly from the bank (via mail in a sealed envelope or via e-mail directly from the bank's website) and reviews it on a monthly basis.

THE SURETY & FIDELITY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

MEMORANDUM CRIME PROTECTION POLICY, APRIL 1, 2012

The Surety & Fidelity Association of America ("SFAA") has revised the Crime Protection Policy ("CPP"). This memorandum provides an explanation of the revisions in the CPP.

Crime Protection Policy

The 2012 edition of the Crime Protection Policy includes certain revisions that have been made to the Financial Institution Bonds over the past few years. In addition, some provisions have been refined to express in greater detail the intent of coverage. As a general matter, the revisions provide clarification rather than expand or reduce coverage compared to the 2000 edition of the CPP.

Declarations

- A paragraph was added to Item 3 to clarify that the insertion of "Not Covered" opposite an insuring agreement or a blank space next to the insuring agreement indicate that such insuring agreement is not provided to the Insured. This provision accounts for the different ways an insurer can express in the CPP that a particular coverage is not provided.
- The line for a countersignature has been deleted, as a countersignature is no longer a common requirement. However, the space in which the countersignature line was deleted is still available for the insurer to insert signatures (original or facsimile) that it may require as part of its policy issuance process.

Consideration Clause

- A phrase was added to the Consideration Clause to clarify that the "loss" indicated in the Clause refers to a loss covered by an Insuring Agreement of the CPP.

Insuring Agreements

Insuring Agreement 1

- Insuring Agreement 1 contains the concept of an "improper financial benefit" (rather than "financial benefit"), which is in the revised edition of the Financial Institution Bonds. Also, the phrase regarding benefits "earned in the normal course of employment" is replaced by benefits "received" by the Employee. The purpose of the change is to strengthen the effect of the language, to preclude an argument that wages, salaries or commissions generated through a dishonest scheme were not in the normal course of employment and therefore not excluded from the meaning of an "improper financial benefit."
- Similar to the fidelity insuring agreement in the Financial Institution Bonds, Insuring Agreement 1 covers "loss" generally (rather than loss of money, securities and other property). This formulation has worked well in the Financial Institution Bonds and reflects more fully the intent of the fidelity insuring agreement -- to protect the insured against loss directly caused by employee dishonesty. From a practical perspective, the revision likely will not alter coverage because the insured's loss will involve "money, securities and other property."

Insuring Agreement 2

- The last sentence of paragraph b. was revised to make explicit that the payment referenced in the sentence is payment for legal expenses.

Insuring Agreement 3

- Insuring Agreement 3 includes the requirement that a perpetrator of a theft must be physically present on the premises at the time of the loss. This requirement is included in the recent editions of the Financial Institution Bonds.
- The scope of coverage has been amended from loss of "money" to loss of "cash", which is a newly defined term. The risks under Insuring Agreement 3 and Insuring Agreement 4 contemplate in-person events, rather than electronic transactions. Thus "cash" (defined as paper money and coins) would be the item lost under these insuring agreements, rather than "money" (as more broadly defined).

Insuring Agreement 5

- Insuring Agreement 5 (Computer Fraud) has been revised to express the risk being covered in a more detailed manner. The exposure intended to be covered is fraudulent transfers involving a "computer to computer" transaction. The coverage is not intended to extend to any loss that involves a computer, even tangentially. In addition, a few new exclusions hone the coverage: a confidential information exclusion, a data breach costs exclusion, a debit/credit card exclusion and an exclusion for failure to follow security procedures.

Definitions

- The definition of "banking premises" has been revised to recognize that institutions in addition to banking institutions maintain accounts holding money and securities. Thus, the term references a "financial institution" with which the insured has an account.
- The definition of "money" has been revised to make explicit that the meaning does not refer exclusively to paper bills and coins. "Money" is defined to consist of "cash" (a newly defined term- paper currency and coins), deposits on account and travelers checks, register checks and money orders.
- The definition of "employee" includes persons furnished to the insured on a short term or seasonal basis. The definition also excludes persons leased to the insured by a labor leasing firm. As originally drafted, the definition might suggest that the exclusion "swallows" the temporary employee part of the definition, because such persons typically are leased to the insured by a labor leasing firm. This was not the intent. The exclusion was meant to refer to persons providing services to the insured on a long-term basis that are usually provided by an employee (such as bookkeeping services). Persons intended to be covered are those furnished temporarily or on a short term basis under the conditions under paragraph b. Therefore, the definition has been revised to add an exception to the exclusion.

- The definition of "funds" has been deleted and moved to the Funds Transfer Fraud insuring agreement, which uses this term.
- The definition of "occurrence" incorporates the endorsement that revised the definition (SE 01 45).
- As noted in the discussion regarding Insuring Agreement 5, certain exclusions were added to define the scope of coverage further, including an exclusion for failure to follow security procedures. "Security Procedure" is a newly defined term, which includes procedures to verify a "payment order". "Payment order" is also a defined term and is based on the definition set forth in the Uniform Commercial Code (§ 4A-103).

Exclusions (Applicable to All Insuring Agreements)

- Similar to the revisions made to the nuclear exclusion in the Financial Institution Bond, chemical and biological contamination has been added to the exclusion.
- Losses related to the theft, disappearance and destruction of confidential information are excluded. This is an exclusion that is common on company forms. Because confidential information conceivably could be used to access the insured's computer system, the exclusion includes a statement that the use of such information is not a basis to exclude an otherwise covered loss under Insuring Agreement 5.
- An exclusion for data breach costs was added. As electronic commerce expands and electronic transactions become more prevalent, an increasing exposure for companies is the costs incurred when the company's computer system (or the computer system of the bank) is breached. When a system is breached, federal and state privacy laws require the company to take certain measures, such as notifying customers that their personal information has been stolen. Although a breach may cause a loss that is covered under the CPP's Insuring Agreements, the CPP is not intended to cover the compliance costs incurred as a result of the breach. Coverage for these costs can be obtained by other insurance that is commercially available.

Exclusions Applicable to Specific Insuring Agreements

- As noted above, an exclusion for failure to follow security procedures has been added and is applicable to Insuring Agreement 5 (Computer Fraud). Crime insurance coverage contemplates strong internal controls and security measures and is not intended to compensate for the insured's lax security measures. Therefore, losses under Insuring Agreement 5 that result from the insured's failure to follow agreed upon or offered security procedures are excluded,
- A debit and credit card exclusion has been added and is applicable to Insuring Agreement 5 (Computer Fraud). Current technology could allow a person to conduct transactions electronically by accessing a company's system and use debit and credit cards to make a purchase. However, a loss arising from such a transaction was not intended to be covered as a Computer Fraud loss.

Conditions

- The inclusion of property "for which the Insured is legally liable" in the Ownership of Property Condition has led to claims that the legal liability of the Insured is covered. This Condition is amended to "codify" cases, such as Lynch Properties Inc. v. Potomac Ins. Co., 140 F3d 622 (5th Cir. 1998), which correctly hold that the Insured must be responsible for the property prior to the events giving rise to the loss.

- The Recoveries Condition tracks the Financial Institution Bond language.
- Some courts have mistakenly thought that an insurer does not have recovery rights until it performs under the policy. Thus there were no rights to impair. In light of these decisions, the Transfer of Your Rights Condition has been revised to refer to "our actual or potential rights of recovery." An insured is obligated to protect the insurer's potential recovery rights, even those that arise only after the insurer pays a loss under the policy.
- Similar to the language in the Financial Institution Bond, the Cancellation as to Any Employee Condition (applicable to Insuring Agreement 1) states that the policy is cancelled as to an employee upon discovery of a dishonest act, whether the discovery occurred prior to or after the commencement of the policy.
- The Facsimile Signatures Condition (applicable to Insuring Agreement 2) has been revised to track language similar to the language in the forgery insurance agreements in the Financial Institution Bonds. Using current technology, a copy of a signature is not necessarily created mechanically, but rather through copiers and scanners. Therefore, "a reproduction of a handwritten signature" reflects this technology. In addition, the reproduction is intended to be a copy on paper. Thus, signatures in electronic form are not treated as a handwritten signature.

b. We may cancel this Policy by mailing or delivering to the first Named Insured written notice of cancellation at least:

(1) 10 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for nonpayment of premium; or

(2) 30 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for any other reason.

c. We will mail or deliver our notice to the first Named Insured's last mailing address known to us.

- d. Notice of cancellation will state the effective date of cancellation. The policy period will end on that date.
- e. If this Policy is canceled, we will send the first Named Insured any premium refund due. If we cancel, the refund will be pro rata. If the first Named Insured cancels, the refund may be less than pro rata. The cancellation will be effective even if we have not made or offered a refund.
- f. If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

2. Changes

This Policy contains all the agreements between you and us concerning the insurance afforded. The first Named Insured shown in the Declarations is authorized on behalf of all insureds to agree with us on changes in the terms of this Policy. If the terms are changed, the changes will be shown in an endorsement issued by us and made a part of this Policy.

3. Concealment, Misrepresentation or Fraud

This Policy is void in any case of fraud by you as it relates to this Policy at any time. It is also void if any insured, at any time, intentionally conceals or misrepresents a material fact concerning:

- a. this insurance;
- b. the covered property;
- c. your interest in the covered property; or
- d. a claim under this insurance.

4. Consolidation and Merger

If through consolidation or merger with, or purchase or acquisition of assets or liabilities of, some other entity any additional persons become employees or you acquire the use and control of any additional premises:

- a. you must give us written notice and obtain our written consent to extend this Policy to such additional employees or premises. We may condition our consent upon payment of an additional premium; but
- b. for the first 60 days after the effective date of such consolidation, merger or purchase or acquisition of assets or liabilities, any insurance afforded for employees or premises also applies to these additional employees or premises for acts committed or events occurring within said 60 day period.

5. Deductible

- a. We will not pay for loss in any one occurrence unless the amount of loss exceeds the Deductible Amount shown in the Declarations. We then will pay the amount of loss in excess of the Deductible Amount, up to the Limit of Insurance. In the event more than one Deductible Amount could apply to the loss, only the highest Deductible Amount will be applied.
- b. For losses covered under Insuring Agreement 1, you must:

(1) give us notice as soon as possible even though the loss falls entirely within the Deductible Amount; and

(2) upon our request, give us a statement describing the loss.

c. The deductible does not apply to loss sustained by any employee benefit plan(s).

6. Discovery of Loss

Discovery of loss occurs when you first become aware of facts which would cause a reasonable person to assume that a loss covered by this Policy has been or will be incurred, even though the exact amount or details of the loss may not then be known.

Discovery also occurs when you receive notice of an actual or potential claim against you alleging facts that if true would constitute a covered loss under this insurance.

7. Duties in the Event of Loss

After you discover a loss or a situation that may result in a loss you must:

a. notify us as soon as possible;

b. submit to examination under oath at our request and give us a signed statement of your answers;

c. give us a detailed, sworn proof of loss within 120 days; and

d. cooperate with us in the investigation and settlement of any claim.

8. Employee Benefit Plan(s)

a. If any employee benefit plan(s) is insured jointly with any other entity under this insurance, you or the plan administrator must select a Limit of Insurance for Insuring Agreement 1. that is sufficient to provide a Limit of Insurance for each plan that is at least equal to that required if each plan were separately insured.

b. If the first Named Insured is an entity other than a plan, any payment we make to that Insured for loss sustained by any plan will be held by that Insured for the use and benefit of the plan(s) sustaining the loss.

c. If two or more plans are insured under this insurance, any payment we make for loss:

(1) sustained by two or more plans; or

(2) of commingled funds or other property of two or more plans; that arises out of one occurrence, is to be shared by each plan sustaining loss in the proportion that the Limit of Insurance required for each such plan bears to the total of those limits.

9. Extended Period to Discover Loss

a. We will pay for loss that you sustained prior to the effective date of termination or cancellation of this insurance, which is discovered by you

- (1) within 60 days following the date of termination or cancellation; and
 - (2) as respects any employee benefit plan(s), within one year following the date of termination or cancellation.
- b. However, this extended period to discover loss terminates immediately upon the effective date of any other insurance obtained by you replacing in whole or in part the insurance afforded by this Policy whether or not such insurance provides coverage for loss sustained prior to its effective date.

10. Joint Insured

- a. The first Named Insured shown in the Declarations is responsible for the payment of all premiums and will be the payee for any return premiums we pay.
- b. If more than one Insured is named in the Declarations, the first Named Insured will act for itself and for every other Insured for all purposes related to this insurance. If the first Named Insured ceases to be covered, then the next Named Insured will become the first Named Insured.
- c. If any Insured or partner or officer of that Insured has knowledge of any information relevant to this insurance, that knowledge is considered knowledge of every Insured.
- d. An employee of any Insured is considered to be an employee of every Insured.
- e. If this Policy or any of its coverage is canceled or terminated as to any Insured, Condition E.9. Extended Period to Discover Loss applies separately to that Insured.
- f. We will not pay more for loss sustained by more than one Insured than the amount we would pay if all the loss had been sustained by one Insured.

11. Legal Action Against Us

You may not bring any legal action against us involving loss:

- a. unless you have complied with all the terms of this Policy; and
- b. until 90 days after you have filed proof of loss with us; and
- c. unless brought within 2 years from the date you discover the loss.

12. Liberalization

If we adopt any revision that would broaden the coverage under this Policy without additional premium within 45 days prior to or during the policy period, the broadened coverage will immediately apply to this insurance.

13. Limit of Insurance

The most we will pay for loss in any one occurrence is the applicable Limit of Insurance shown in the Declarations.

14. Loss Covered Under More Than One Coverage

If two or more coverages of this Policy apply to the same loss, we will pay the lesser of:

- a. the actual amount of loss; or

b. the highest single Limit of Insurance applicable to those coverages.

15. Non-Cumulation of Limit of Insurance

Regardless of the number of years this Policy remains in force or the number of premiums paid, no Limit of Insurance cumulates from year to year or policy period to policy period.

16. Other Insurance

a. This Policy does not apply to loss recoverable or recovered under other insurance or indemnity. However, if the limit of the other insurance or indemnity is insufficient to cover the entire amount of the loss, this Policy will apply to that part of the loss, other than that falling within any Deductible Amount, not recoverable or recovered under the other insurance or indemnity. However, this Policy will not apply to the amount of loss that is more than the applicable Limit of Insurance shown in the Declarations.

b. Under Insuring Agreement 4., we will pay only for the amount of loss that you cannot recover:

(1) under your contract with the armored motor vehicle company; and

(2) from any insurance or indemnity carried by, or for the benefit of customers of, the armored motor vehicle company.

17. Ownership of Property, Interests Covered

The property covered under this Policy is limited to property:

a. that you own or hold; or

b. that is owned and held by someone else under circumstances that made you responsible for the property prior to, and independent of, the loss.

However, this Policy is for your benefit only. It provides no rights or benefits to any other person or organization.

18. Records

You must keep records of all covered property so we can verify the amount of any loss.

19. Recoveries

a. Recoveries, whether effected by you or us, shall be applied, net of the expense of such recovery, in the following manner and order:

(1) to the satisfaction of your loss which would otherwise have been paid under this Policy but for the fact that it is in excess of the Limit of Insurance and the Deductible Amount, if any;

(2) then to us, until we are reimbursed for the settlement made;

(3) then to you, until you are reimbursed for that part of the loss equal to the Deductible Amount, if any;

(4) then to you for any loss not covered by this Policy.

- b. Recoveries do not include any recovery from insurance, suretyship, reinsurance, security or indemnity taken for our benefit.
- c. If original securities are recovered after duplicates of such securities have been issued, the original securities shall be surrendered to us.

20. Territory

This Policy covers only acts committed or events occurring within the United States of America, U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico or Canada. In addition, under Insuring Agreement 1., we will pay for loss caused by any employee while temporarily outside of said territories for a period of not more than 90 days.

21. Transfer of Your Rights and Duties Under This Policy

Your rights and duties under this Policy may not be transferred without our written consent except in the case of death of an individual Named Insured. If you die, your rights and duties will be transferred to your legal representative but only while acting within the scope of duties as your legal representative. Until your legal representative is appointed, anyone having proper temporary custody of your property will have your rights and duties but only with respect to that property.

22. Transfer of Your Rights of Recovery Against Others to Us

You must transfer to us all your rights of recovery against any person or organization for any loss you sustained and for which we have paid or settled. You also must do everything necessary to secure those rights and do nothing after loss to impair our actual or potential rights of recovery.

23. Valuation - Settlement

- a. Subject to the applicable Limit of Insurance provision we will pay for:
 - (1) Loss of money but only up to and including its face value. We may, at our option, pay for loss of money issued by any country other than the United States of America:
 - (i) at face value in the money issued by that country; or
 - (ii) in the United States of America dollar equivalent determined by the rate of exchange on the day the loss was discovered.
 - (2) Loss of securities but only up to and including their value at the close of business on the day the loss was discovered. We may, at our option:
 - (i) pay the value of such securities, or replace them in kind, in which event you must assign to us all your rights, title and interest in and to those securities; or
 - (ii) pay the cost of any Lost Securities Bond required in connection with issuing duplicates of the securities. However, we will be liable only for the payment of so much of the cost of the bond as would be charged for a bond having a penalty not exceeding the lesser of the:
 - (a) value of the securities at the close of business on the day the loss was discovered; or

(b) Limit of Insurance.

- (3) Loss of, or loss from damage to, other property or loss from damage to the premises or its exterior for the replacement cost of the property without deduction for depreciation. However, we will not pay more than the least of the following:
- (i) the Limit of Insurance applicable to the lost or damaged property;
 - (ii) the cost to replace the lost or damaged property with property;
 - (a) of comparable material and quality; and
 - (b) used for the same purpose; or
 - (iii) the amount you actually spend that is necessary to repair or replace the lost or damaged property.
- (4) We will not pay on a replacement cost basis for any loss or damage:
- (i) until the lost or damaged property actually is repaired or replaced; and
 - (ii) unless the repairs or replacement are made as soon as reasonably possible after the loss or damage.

If the lost or damaged property is not repaired or replaced, we will pay on an actual cash value basis.

- b. We may, at our option, pay for loss of, or loss from damage to, property other than money:
- (1) in the money of the country in which the loss occurred; or
 - (2) in the United States of America dollar equivalent of the money of the country in which the loss occurred determined by the rate of exchange on the day the loss was discovered.
- c. Any property that we pay for or replace becomes our property.
